

I am very concerned over consolidation of media ownership with only a small number of huge corporations. We are losing access to the whole range of viewpoints, cultures and lifestyles that make the US the wonderfully diverse country that it is. We need more openness, more fairness, and more local stations.